Sun Lakes Republican Club Meeting Minutes

When: March 13, 2018 6:30-8:30 PM
Where: Sun Lakes Country Club #1 AZ Room
Who: approximately 125 people

AGENDA:

1. Chairman Mike Tennant welcomed the guests and led us in the Invocation.
2. Jay Sanderson led us in the Pledge of Allegiance.
3. Mike introduced the candidates attending the meeting. Each had a few minutes to introduce themselves.
4. Greg gave us an update on Andy Biggs, our State Congressman in in Washington DC.
5. Carolyn McCorkle, our 1st Vice Chairman, introduced Michelle Trent.
6. Michele Trent whose company is called "Well-Remembered" explained how our veterans can leave a legacy through participation in the Library of Congress Veteran's History Project. Michele is a personal historian and an advocate for preserving memories and sharing them with future generations. Trent embarked on this new career after recording her own father's memories, which are now a priceless gift for her family. Prior to beginning "Remembered Well," Michele spent 25 years as a communications professional for various non-profit and for-profit companies. Michele is an accomplished speaker, corporate trainer, and content creator. She is a member of the Int'l Practitioners of Personal Histories and Chats Toastmasters. Michele recently launched "Reminisce Roundtable," an interactive story-sharing group for seniors.Her company specializes in recording a persons' personal history for future generations. She gave examples of cases in the past which she recorded. The advantage to her system is that the person's own voice is on the recording rather than a stranger's voice. She calls her business RememberWell.com.
   She also shared with us that the US government has started a project called The Veteran's History Project. Veterans and families of veterans are encouraged to send in materials having to do with the service of a loved one or themselves during or after one of the wars. The project can be found at is LOC.gov. Michelle offered to help people free of charge to participate in the government program.

7. Mike Tennant introduced the second speaker, Mike Broomhead. Mike Broomhead has been with KFYI since 2005. He uses his business and life experience to address the issues that Arizona citizens face today. Rooted in fiscal and social conservatism, Mike leaves no doubt where he stands on any issue. He fights for the freedoms of Americans and brings the hottest issues of the day to his listeners. Broomhead initially made a name for himself speaking at the largest pro-troops rallies in the country. He was called upon to debate on both television and radio and is now a highly requested speaker around the country. Mike also had the privilege of being the master of ceremonies for two Presidential visits in 2004, as well as being involved in the 2016 elections. Mike is a strong believer in giving back to the community and volunteers his time for several organizations, including the Best Buddies program at Marcos de Niza High School; "Project We Remember" that supports Military Families; "Packages From Home" that is dedicated to US servicemen and women overseas; and Patriot Day Celebration that benefits Fighter Country Foundation.
   Mike is the president of Broomhead Electric, LLC, and still maintains his contractor's license in Arizona.
   Prior to his radio career, Mike was a winning bull rider and rodeo announcer! He is the father of two daughters. His talk covered a number of topics including: Gun Control, Immigration, upcoming elections, and local and Washington politics. There was a question and answer period after his talk.

8. The 50/50% raffle winner won $85 . He donated $20 back to the SLRC club.
9. The speaker at the next SLRC meeting will be Alan Korwin. His talk is entitled: "National Security Threats and Gun Ownership." He will be discussing Gun Control and the 2nd Amendment. The meeting will be held in the same room at Sun Lakes Country Club at 6:30PM on April 10th.
